Dear Mr Wallis

AUTHORISED ECONOMIC OPERATOR (AEO) - GRANTING OF AEO STATUS

I refer to your application for AEO status dated 08/07/08 and accepted on 15/07/08. I am pleased to inform you that your application for AEO status has been successful and I enclose your AEO certificate number GB AEO/0007705.

Your certificate type is Full (F) which entitles you to benefits under security and safety and customs simplifications (effective from 1 July 2009).

The effective date of your certificate is 20/01/2009 and your certificate number should be entered on all customs documentation on or after that date (see Notice 117 - Authorised Economic Operator).

As a certificate holder you are responsible for maintaining the standards applicable to certification and for informing HMRC of changes in your business that would impact your status. These include:

- Changes of business or trading name;
- Changes of premises;
- Significant alterations in business patterns such as changing the types of goods you deal in or changes in processing or storage procedures;
- Significant changes to your record keeping systems;
- Any other significant changes to those activities declared on your application.

Information is available in large print, audio tape and Braille formats.

On-line business tool, "Service is ours, Satisfaction is yours"

The screenshot shows the HMM21.com website for North America. The top navigation bar includes 'Track & Trace', 'Schedules', 'Booking', 'Billing', and 'Company Information'. A search bar is located at the top right. The main content area features news and notices, including updates on MOL contributions and a fire onboard a vessel. A sidebar on the left contains a login form and a 'West Coast Labor Update' button. A 'Local Menu' is also visible. Three callout boxes highlight specific features: 'Smart Search Tracking & Site search', 'Local Sites Region specific Web service', and 'Customized Information Service changes, Rate changes, Terminal updates etc.'. A map at the bottom shows a 'Bird's eye' view of a location with an address pop-up for the Hyundai Regional Customer Service Center in Farmers Branch, TX.
